

Can you create your own fish jigsaw? You could use it to order numbers or maybe count in twos, fives or tens!

You could draw shells, writing number sentences and the children work out what they all equal. If you want to challenge them further, write the answer and they have to think of the number sentences.

