The Week-

Message From Mrs Waters

It has been a super week for us as everyone has explored where they are going to be in September! The children told me they were excited but a little bit nervous too. I was very proud to watch the children join their new classes with such confidence and positivity - they really shone brightly! Moving to a new year group can be daunting for the children but also for parents/carers too. I would like to assure you that we have taken a long time to make our final decisions about the organisation of classes and all teachers were involved in this process. We have taken into account a range of factors and we have ensured that ALL children are with friends from their current classes. A new school year opens up so many exciting opportunities for our children, building new friendships is one of them. We are supporting everyone with the transition and helping them to develop resilience to face this change with a smile. We are looking forward to a busy 'Fit for Fun' week next week, don't forget our SPORTS MORNING on Thurs 11th July - check the letter for all the timings so you don't get locked out!

Enjoy the sunny weekend!

EYFS

What a fantastic week Reception have had! We have used adjectives to describe the characters and setting within the 'Three Billy Goats Gruff' story and have explored the size, weight and position of the goats when crossing the bridge. We have also had a lovely experience on the Learning Bus, using the VR headsets to watch videos of African animals. Finally, we had two fabulous days experiencing Year 1!

Year 1

We have been learning to write diary entries this week and finished our learning by writing a diary entry from the Giant's perspective from the story 'Jack and the Beanstalk'. The Year One teachers have enjoyed reading the children's diaries and have been so impressed with the ambitious word choices they have used to make their diaries even more interesting and engaging to read. We have enjoyed our two days meeting the new Year One children, they have impressed their new teachers with their positive behaviour.

Year 2

We have been exploring 'List Poems' and considering what they might find in a clown's pocket to write their own list poem. They have been using ambitious adjectives and similes to make their sentences exciting and are looking forward to performing their poems to the class. They enjoyed meeting their new teachers on move up day in preparation for Year 3. Best of all they loved their special leavers treat on Friday where they spent the whole morning with a fun visit from the lego workshop!
